[illegible]

[illegible] on Thursday morning, and passed by yeas 35, noes 31.

Mr. [illegible], from the Joint Select Committee to whom the message of the Governor and accompanying papers had been referred relative to the order of the Quartermaster General to seize Iron belonging to the A. and N. C. Railroad, made an extended report, with a resolution protesting against the seizure as an infringement upon the rights of the State and Company, the State having a mortgage upon said road and effects.

Resolutions in favor of the Doorkeepers and Principal and Assistant Clerks, were passed.

A bill to Charter the Yadkin Valley Railroad Company having been amended by the Senate, the amendments were concurred in by the House.

Mr. [illegible], of Washington, introduced a resolution [illegible] Mr. Wiseman. Referred.

A bill concerning the Sheriffs of Bladen county and their sureties. Passed its third reading.

A resolution to pay John Spelman $13 60 for printing, was passed its several readings.

The House concurred in a proposition of the Senate to rescind joint agreement to adjourn sine die on Wednesday morning, and adjourn sine die Thursday 4 p. m.

During the session the House concurred in a proposition from the Senate to vote immediately for the Trustees of the University, and voted accordingly.

At 12 o'clock the House proceeded to the consideration of a bill to amend the Charter of the Greenville and French Broad Railroad.

Mr. Shepherd addressed the House in favor of the bill.

Mr. Bryan opposed the bill and spoke at length against it. He thought that to allow the gauge of the road to be different [illegible] would militate against the interest of the [illegible] Western North Carolina Railroad, and would effectually bar off this section of the State from a community of interest with that portion east of them.

[illegible] spoke in favor of the bill, and contended that [illegible] would be injured by the passage of the bill.

Mr. Bryan addressed the House in favor of the bill.—He argued to show that if the bill passed it would necessarily greatly injure the prospects of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford road, as well as that of the Western extension.

Mr. Boggin replied to Mr. Bryan.

Mr. Lyle addressed the House in opposition to the bill, and gave a history of the efforts heretofore made to get an outlet from Western North Carolina, and thought that the system already inaugurated ought not to be impeded or injured.

Mr. Neall spoke in favor of the bill.

Mr. Flemming opposed the bill, and thought that the bill would greatly injure the Western North Carolina roads.

The vote was taken and the bill was rejected; 15 yeas and 46 nays.

Mr. Cobb, from the Committee to superintend the election for Trustees of the University, reported that no one having received a majority therefore there was no election.

Mr. Flemming moved to take up a bill to stimulate the production of provisions during the war, and called for the yeas and nays.

Vote taken, and the motion was lost. Yeas 20, nays 42.

A message was received from the Senate transmitting the report of a Committee appointed to enquire whether any partiality was shown to certain parties in the transportation upon Railroads in which the State has an interest, with a resolution providing for a Commissioner to give the matter further investigation; amended, giving the Governor power to appoint. Concurred in.

A bill to amend the charter of the town of Asheville, was passed its several readings.

A resolution in favor of Capt. W. W. Clements' Cavalry Company. Passed its several readings.

An engrossed bill to amend an act of the present session to prevent the distillation of spirituous liquors was passed its several readings.

A bill relating to the County Courts of Franklin and Caldwell. Passed its several readings.

A bill to prevent slaves from trading in spirituous liquors. Passed its several readings.

At [illegible] the House took a recess until [illegible] past 2 o'clock.

NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.
NEW SERIES.

IT IS CONTEMPLATED TO RESUME THE PUBlication of the North-Carolina Christian Advocate at an early day, under the patronage of the North-Carolina Conference, and under the direction and ownership of a joint stock Company, composed of ministers and laymen, to secure its permanency.

It will be as its name imports a CHRISTIAN Advocate.—It will maintain and defend the doctrines and discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and labor to advance Christ's Kingdom on earth, and to promote peace and good will among all men.

Besides its earnest, religious character, it shall be an advocate of the moral, educational and industrial progress of North Carolina—a welcome visitor to every family and to the camps of our brave soldiers, and a faithful chronicler of what may be useful and interesting, and of the current news.

All our traveling and local ministers and the stockholders of the Company, are specially requested to act as Agents for the paper.

The old subscribers of the Advocate will be supplied with the new series, to the full amount due them at the time of its suspension, but as the mail books are not in the possession of the Editor, he must rely on the old subscribers themselves and the Agents, to furnish him with their names and post offices and the amount due them.

The Advocate will be well printed on good paper, and will contain an amount of reading matter equal to any paper in the State.

During the continuance of war prices, the subscription price will be $3 per annum, always in advance.

Agents who send us ten or more new subscribers and the Cash, will be entitled to a copy of the paper for one year. It is desirable that a large list be sent in at once.

Address WM. E. PELL, Editor.
Raleigh, N. C. Jan. 2, 1863.

LOST.

AT THE DEPOT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA R. R., a large fair leathered ladies TRUNK, with a brass lock on the same, on Tuesday the 20th of January, 1863. Any person who will return the same with the contents, I will pay Twenty Dollars. It is probable that it has been taken to some of the Hotels by mistake, or may have been sent from said depot to some other point on the Railroad.
